DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 8-22 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 7/7/05.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-7 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 2-9 of U.S. Patent No. 6223078, over claims 2-6 of US Patent No. 6484055, and over claims 12 and 13 of US Patent No. 6687540.

For '078, although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the patented claims meet and contain the limitations of the application claims. In addition, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include in the patented claims, structure such as a pacemaker/defibrillator with microprocessors and software (the "means for") to perform the method steps of the patented claims, since it was well known in the art that pacemakers/defibrillators with microprocessors and software are provided to perform method steps of detecting VT and deliver therapy to allow the patient to have an implantable device that protects them from cardiac arrhythmias.

For '055 and '540, although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the patented claims are more narrow and meet and contain the limitations of the application claims. In addition, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include in the patented claims, a means for determining the absolute value of the difference, since it was known in the art to take the absolute value of the difference as a way to simplify the comparison to determine whether the difference is in a positive/negative range.
